

Hegel and the Hegelian Tradition in Political Thought

Robinson College, University of Cambridge
7-8 July 2023

Organising Committee: Richard Bourke, Fernanda Gallo, Duncan Kelly
Conference Assistant: Elena Yi-Jia Zeng

Conference funded by: The British Academy, UK; DAAD–University of Cambridge; Faculty of History, University of Cambridge; King’s College, University of Cambridge; Cambridge Centre for Political Thought

Programme:

DAY 1 – 7th July

10:30–10:50: Registration and Coffee

10:50–11:00 Opening Remarks: Richard Bourke (King's College, University of Cambridge)

11:00–12:40: The Philosophy of Right

Chair: Duncan Kelly (Jesus College, University of Cambridge)

Ludwig Siep (University of Münster), “Limits and Potential of Hegel's Philosophy of Objective Spirit”.

David James (Warwick University), “Hegel on the Unity of the State”.

Sally Sedgwick (Boston University), “Weltgeschichte als Gericht: On Justifying Hegel's Philosophy of Right”.

12:40–14:00: Lunch

14:00–15:10: The World

Chair: Fernanda Gallo (Homerton College, University of Cambridge)

Angelica Nuzzo (City University of New York), “The Philosophy of Right and the Idea of the World: Hegel's “Political Cosmology”.

Frederick Neuhouser (Barnard College, Columbia University), “Hegel's Social Philosophy as Comprehending the Life-World”.

15:10–15:40 Coffee/Tea Break

15:40–17:20: The Will

Chair: Gareth Stedman Jones (King's College, University of Cambridge)

Douglas Moggach (University of Ottawa/ University of Sidney), “Hegel and Post-Kantian Perfectionism”.

Allegra de Laurentiis (Stony Brook University), “On the ‘Infinite Recalcitrance’ of Property in Bourgeois Society (§195)”.

Susanne Herrmann-Sinai (University of Oxford), “Subjective Freedom”.

DAY 2 – 8th July

9:30–10:00: Coffee

10:00–11:40: The Citizen

Chair: Charlotte Johann (Churchill College, University of Cambridge)

Elias Buchetmann (University of Rostock), “Hegel’s Constitutional Politics”.

Klaus Vieweg (University of Jena), “Der Staat, das bin ich: Hegel über Bürger und Staat”.

Robert Stern (University of Sheffield), “The Case of Elizabeth II: Hegel’s Account of Monarchy Confirmed?”.

11:40–12:10: Coffee/Tea Break

12:10–13:20: The People

Chair: Sylvana Tomaselli (St John College, University of Cambridge)

Stephen Houlgate (Warwick University), “Civil Society and its Discontents: Hegel and the Problem of Poverty”.

Andreja Novakovic (University of California, Berkeley), “Hegel’s Answer to the ‘Academy’ Question: Is it Permissible to Deceive a People?”

13:20–15:00 Lunch

15:00–16:40: After Hegel

Chair: Richard Bourke (King’s College, University of Cambridge)

Fernanda Gallo (University of Cambridge), “Hegel’s Ethical State in Italy”.

David Leopold (University of Oxford), “Hegel and Utopia”.

Terry Pinkard (Georgetown University), “Life, Logic, Practice: The Remnants of Naturalized Left-Hegelianism”.